Notice

NCC@Xavier's

Dear Students we are delighted to announce the introduction of the National Cadet Corps (NCC) program in our college, starting from this academic year (2023-24). NCC is a prestigious organization that aims to develop character, discipline, leadership, and a sense of service among the youth of our nation. It offers a platform for students to engage in various activities, including physical training, adventure sports, social service, and community development.

Participation in NCC provides students with numerous benefits, such as:

- 1. Personality Development: NCC helps students enhance their overall personality and develop important life skills like leadership, self-confidence, and teamwork.
- 2. Physical Fitness: The program emphasizes physical training, improving stamina, strength, and overall fitness levels.
- 3. Adventure and Outdoor Activities: NCC offers opportunities for adventure sports like trekking, rock climbing, para-sailing, fostering a spirit of adventure among the cadets.
- 4. Social Service: The NCC encourages students to actively contribute to society through initiatives such as blood donation drives, cleanliness campaigns, and training then in disaster management.
- 5. Competitive Edge: Participation in NCC adds value to academic profile and enhances employability prospects. NCC cadets are highly regarded by government organizations, defense services, and various industries.

We invite all interested students to join the NCC program and become a part of this esteemed organization. The program is open to both boys and girls of first year. Orientation sessions will be conducted in the coming weeks to provide detailed information about the program, its benefits, and the selection process for various activities and camps. Attendance at these sessions is strongly recommended for all interested students.

For further queries kindly contact the undersigned and submit the duly filed application form at the college reception between 09:00 AM - 03:00 PM from 17 July - 05 August, 2023.

Let's come together and embrace the spirit of service, leadership, and discipline through the NCC. Join us in making a positive impact on ourselves and society.
