REPORT

India's Foreign Policy and Changing Global Dimensions

The Department of Political Science in collaboration with Xavier's Constitution Club, St Xavier's College, Jaipur organized a two day workshop on "India's Foreign Policy and Changing Global Dimensions" on 19th and 20th October. The event commenced in the presence of esteemed guests, faculty members and participants.

Dr. Mushtaq Hussain, Assistant Professor, BITS Law School, Mumbai was the guest lecturer for the first day. Sir enlightened us on the topic "Israel Palestine Conflict". The session helped us gain better insight regarding the contemporary geopolitical scenario of the conflict as well as the historical background of the same. We were also enlightened about India's position in regard with the Israel Palestine conflict in particular and its relations with the Middle East in general.

Topic for the second day was "Indian Foreign Policy" brought into light by our guest lecturer Ms. Neelam Bhatia, Assistant Professor, Shivaji College, Delhi University. Ma'am emphasized upon the continuities and change in trends in our foreign policy. She also highlighted India's role as a significant global player shaping narrative through the key elements of diasporic engagement and use of smart power in multilateral relations in our foreign policy.

The session concluded with a few words of appreciation and a vote of thanks by Dr. Meeta Sharma, HoD, Department of Political Science and Dr Surendra Singh Chauhan, Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science.
