ABOUT THE TALK SHOW

The field of business and commerce is undergoing a significant shift in today's rapidly changing and interconnected global economy. This approach acknowledges that the problems we encounter, whether related to social well-being, ethical decision-making, technological disruption, or environmental sustainability, are often intricate and interrelated. Hence, adopting a comprehensive and collaborative approach is imperative, not only for comprehending these issues but also for formulating and implementing effective solutions that contribute to a sustainable future.

HIGHLIGHTS

- This talk show is not only about speakers but also an open forum for discussion with the students.
- This talk show will let you get a glimpse into the stories of successful people and compel you to think outside the box.
- This talk show is an attempt to bring leaders from industry and the corporate sector together and provide a platform to discuss issues that are critical from a corporate perspective in this context.
