

Ms Loveleen Mathur brings with herself a rich experience of 27 years, working in various capacities and constantly updating herself. A graduate in Science and a postgraduate in English, she began her career as a school teacher but her keenness to learn new skills encouraged her to explore the field of library sciences where she found her passion. She thus pursued BLIS and later MLIS from IGNOU and acquired the right skill and expertise. Since then she has been dedicated working towards enhancing the soul of every educational institution – the library.

She has also successfully completed a 15 Weeks certificate course in Digital Library from SAWAYAM, MHRD and INFLIBNET Centre. She has attended many workshops ranging from ‘Revised Accreditation Fame Work of NAAC’ to ‘Future of Library services & technology solutions’ to Paradigms in the Library and Information Sector’. Ms Mathur has also presented a paper on ‘Library Transformation from stack room to the Kindle’.

Currently she is the Assistant Librarian at St. Xavier’s College Jaipur and is pursuing her PhD from Banasthali Vidyapith, Rajasthan.
