Objectives	To create a meaningful and impactful experience that promotes gender equality, sustainability, empowerment, community engagement, and celebration of women's achievements, ultimately contributing to a more inclusive, equitable, and sustainable society.
Report:	The ISREAC/ UBA Cell, in collaboration with center for employability Xavier's Vocational Institute, celebrated 'International Women's Day' on the theme 'Gender Equality today for a Sustainable Tomorrow' on 8 March 2022 for women from the villages adopted under the UBA scheme by the college and also the nearby villages.
Outcome:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The celebration of International Women's Day by ISREAC/UBA Cell and Xavier's Vocational Institute was a significant event that promoted gender equality and sustainability awareness among women from adopted villages. The event was designed to foster empowerment and community engagement, highlighting the importance of women's rights, equality, and sustainable development. • The event kicked off with engaging workshops and seminars focused on various aspects of gender equality and sustainability. Expert speakers and facilitators shared insights and strategies for promoting gender parity, empowering women economically, and advancing sustainable practices in daily life. Topics such as women's health, education, entrepreneurship, and environmental conservation were explored in depth, providing participants with valuable knowledge and skills. • One of the key highlights of the event was the participation of women from adopted villages, who actively took part in discussions, workshops, and interactive sessions. This inclusive approach ensured that the voices and perspectives of rural women were heard and valued, contributing to a more

	comprehensive understanding of the challenges they face and the opportunities for empowerment. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Practical sessions and demonstrations were also conducted to showcase sustainable practices that women could adopt in their homes and communities. This included sessions on organic farming, waste management, renewable energy, and water conservation. By promoting these sustainable practices, the event not only raised awareness but also encouraged women to take concrete actions towards building a more environmentally friendly and resilient community.• In addition to educational and skill-building activities, the celebration of International Women's Day included cultural performances, art exhibitions, and networking opportunities. These elements added a sense of celebration and camaraderie, further strengthening the bonds within the community and inspiring collective action for positive change.• Overall, the event organized by ISREAC/UBA Cell and Xavier's Vocational Institute was a comprehensive and impactful initiative that promoted gender equality, sustainability awareness, and community empowerment. By engaging women from adopted villages and providing them with knowledge, skills, and inspiration, the event contributed to creating a more inclusive, equitable, and sustainable society.

Title:	Evening classes
Date:	8 th February 2024
Venue:	Centre For Employability Xavier Vocational Institute (XVI)
Organised by	Centre For Employability Xavier Vocational Institute (XVI)
Number of beneficiaries:	10 students
Objectives	To enhance employability, fostering personal and professional development, promoting inclusivity and community engagement, and empowering individuals specially nearby village students to achieve their educational and career aspirations
Report:	The evening classes held from 08.02.2024 at the Center for Employability aimed to provide education for all, attracting healthy participation from villagers.
Outcome:	The outcomes of the evening classes at XVI, focused on enhancing employability, fostering personal and professional development, promoting inclusivity and community engagement, and empowering individuals, especially nearby village students, to achieve their educational and career aspirations, can be transformative and far-reaching: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Enhanced Employability: Participants who engage in evening classes at XVI gain valuable skills and knowledge that enhance their employability. This includes technical skills relevant to specific industries or roles, soft skills such as communication, teamwork, and problem-solving, and job-seeking skills like resume writing, interview preparation, and networking. As a result, they are better equipped to secure employment opportunities and succeed in their chosen careers. • Personal and Professional Development: The evening classes provide a platform for participants to experience personal and professional growth. Through workshops, seminars, and hands-on training, individuals develop confidence, self-awareness, leadership skills, and a growth mindset. They also learn time management, goal setting, and decision-making skills that are essential for personal and professional success. • Promotion of Inclusivity: XVI's evening classes promote inclusivity by welcoming participants from diverse backgrounds, including nearby village students. This fosters a sense of belonging and mutual respect among participants, regardless of their socio-economic status, gender, ethnicity, or educational background. Inclusivity is also promoted through

	curriculum design that caters to diverse learning needs and cultural sensitivity. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Community Engagement: The evening classes serve as a hub for community engagement, bringing together individuals from nearby villages and other areas. This promotes social cohesion, cultural exchange, and collaboration on community projects and initiatives. Participants learn the importance of civic responsibility, volunteerism, and contributing positively to their communities.• Empowerment: Through education, skill development, and support, XVI's evening classes empower individuals to take control of their futures and pursue their educational and career aspirations. This empowerment is particularly impactful for nearby village students who may face additional barriers to accessing education and employment opportunities. By providing them with the tools, resources, and encouragement they need, XVI empowers these individuals to overcome challenges and achieve their full potential. Overall, the outcomes of evening classes at XVI reflect a holistic approach to education and empowerment, with a focus on enhancing employability, fostering personal and professional development, promoting inclusivity and community engagement, and empowering individuals to reach their goals.
