Title of the Activity	Perinatal Healthcare
Date:	4 th November, 2023
Venue:	Narottampura Village
Organised by	Department of Psychology
Number of beneficiaries:	25 villagers
Objectives	<ul style="list-style-type: none">The event was aimed to spread awareness about the mental and physical aspects of prenatal and postpartum care of women, to not just expecting and new mothers but also to their family members.
Report:	The Awareness Session on Perinatal Health, organized by the Department of Psychology, St. Xavier's College in collaboration with the Unnat Bharat Abhiyan (UBA) Cell, proved to be a resounding success, leaving a lasting impact on the women and girls of Narottampura Village. The event, held on November 4, 2023, aimed to disseminate crucial information about the physical and mental aspects of prenatal and postpartum care to expecting and new mothers, as well as their family members.
Outcome:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">The elaborate discussions held during the event delved into crucial topics surrounding perinatal health and depression, offering attendees invaluable insights into both physical and mental well-being. By addressing concerns, risk factors, and preventive measures related to these issues, participants not only gained a deeper understanding of their own health but also acquired knowledge to support others within their communities.Moreover, the distribution of free Calcium Tablets exemplified the organizers' unwavering commitment to enhancing the health and well-being of community members. This gesture went beyond mere discourse, demonstrating tangible support and investment in the health of attendees. Calcium supplements play a vital role in supporting maternal health, particularly during pregnancy and lactation, and their provision signifies a proactive approach to addressing nutritional needs within the community.By combining informative discussions with practical support measures like the distribution of essential supplements, the organizers ensured that the event was not just a platform for awareness but also a catalyst for tangible positive change in the lives of attendees. This holistic approach to health education and support reflects a commendable dedication to the overall well-being of the community and highlights the impact that proactive initiatives can have on promoting healthier lifestyles and reducing the burden of preventable health issues.

Objectives	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To foster inclusivity and empowerment. To develop Understanding Transgender Identity and Expression
Report:	The visit to 'Garima Greh - Nai Bhor Sanstha' on December 26, 2023, marked a profound and heart-warming experience for Dr. Ranjit Kaur, Ananya Acharya, and the members of 'Astitva' from St. Xavier's College, Jaipur. This initiative, led by social activist Pushpa Mai, epitomized the spirit of inclusivity and empowerment within the transgender community. The funds for these kits were raised through the collective efforts of the 'Astitva' group members and Dr. Ranjit Kaur, underscoring their commitment to making a meaningful difference in the lives of marginalized individuals.
Outcome:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The visit to 'Garima Greh - Nai Bhor Sanstha', spearheaded by the esteemed social activist Pushpa Mai, served as a powerful embodiment of inclusivity and empowerment within the transgender community. This initiative not only shed light on the challenges faced by transgender individuals but also underscored the importance of creating supportive spaces where they can thrive. Through this visit, participants gained firsthand insights into the daily struggles and triumphs of transgender individuals, fostering empathy and understanding among all involved. Pushpa Mai's leadership and advocacy further amplified the message of acceptance and solidarity, inspiring others to champion the rights of marginalized communities. The provision of essential kits to residents of 'Garima Greh' symbolized more than just material support; it represented a collective effort to uplift and empower those often overlooked or marginalized by society. These kits, comprising necessary items for daily living, not only addressed immediate needs but also conveyed a message of dignity and respect for the recipients. Crucially, the funds for these kits were raised through the collaborative efforts of the 'Astitva' group members, underscoring their unwavering commitment to effecting positive change in the lives of marginalized individuals. This collective endeavor highlighted the power of community-driven initiatives in driving meaningful social impact and fostering a culture of empathy and inclusion.

Title of the Activity	Syaahi, the stationery donation drive
Date:	9 th to 30 th September 2023
Venue:	Lalya Ka Baas, Nevta
Organised by	Department of English and Enlightened Echelon and All About Happiness
Number of beneficiaries:	30 students of village
Objectives	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To spread education and happiness
Report:	The initiative organized by Enlightened Echelon, in collaboration with All About Happiness and under the Unnat Bharat Program (UBA), proved to be immensely impactful. Commencing on September 9, 2023, the drive aimed to collect stationery for students of Government Upper Primary School, Lalya Ka Baas, Nevta, culminating in a distribution event on September 30, 2023.
Outcome:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The drive to collect stationery for the students of Government Upper Primary School, Lalya Ka Baas, Nevta, was a heartwarming endeavor that exemplified the power of community solidarity and collective generosity. Through strategic placement of collection cartons across various locations in Jaipur, the initiative garnered widespread support and attracted generous contributions from individuals and organizations alike. As a result of these efforts, essential stationery items such as notebooks, crayons, and pencils were collected in abundance, ensuring that the school children would have the necessary tools to support their education and creativity. The sight of overflowing cartons filled with these items was a testament to the compassion and goodwill of the community members who rallied together to make a difference in the lives of others. The culmination of the drive in a distribution event at Government Upper Primary School, Lalya Ka Baas, Nevta, was a moment of joy and fulfilment for all involved. Witnessing the smiles on the faces of the school children as they received their new supplies served as a poignant reminder of the tangible impact that acts of kindness can have on the lives of beneficiaries. For many of these children, the stationery provided through the drive represented more than just writing materials; it symbolized hope, opportunity, and the promise of a brighter future. The success of the drive not only ensured that the immediate needs of the students were met but also highlighted the broader significance of community engagement and social responsibility. By coming together to support the education of these children, the community demonstrated its commitment to nurturing the next generation and investing in their potential.

Title of the Activity	Donation Drive- Whisper No More
Date:	25 th to 26 th January 2023
Venue:	Government Upper Primary School, Lalya Ka Bas ; St. Xavier's College Jaipur, Nevta; and Rajkiya Balika Uccha Madhyamik Vidhyalaya, Banipark .
Organised by	Department of English
Number of beneficiaries:	40 school girls
Objectives	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The aim of Whisper No More is to desensitize the stigma associated with sanitary napkins and encourage the students in participating in such collective social activities.
Report:	The sanitary napkin distribution drive, Whisper No More, organized by Enlightened Echelon in collaboration with the Gender Studies and Women Cell, was successfully conducted on January 25th and 26th, 2023, across three different locations: Government Upper Primary School, Lalya Ka Bas; St. Xavier's College Jaipur, Nevta; and Rajkiya Balika Uccha Madhyamik Vidhyalaya, Banipark. The initiative aimed to break the stigma surrounding sanitary napkins and promote participation in collective social activities among students.
Outcome:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> At its core, Whisper No More aimed not only to provide essential sanitary napkins but also to dismantle the pervasive stigma surrounding menstruation. By breaking down these barriers, the initiative sought to create a safe and supportive environment where students could openly discuss menstrual health and hygiene, fostering a culture of awareness and inclusivity. Through their active involvement in the drive, students and volunteers alike were empowered to take ownership of social issues, recognizing the power of collective action in effecting meaningful change. The collaboration between Enlightened Echelon, the Gender Studies, and Women Cell exemplifies the synergy that arises when organizations unite behind a common cause. Together, they demonstrated unwavering dedication to promoting gender equity and inclusivity, leveraging their respective expertise and resources to amplify the impact of Whisper No More. In essence, Whisper No More transcended the distribution of sanitary napkins to become a catalyst for social transformation. It symbolized not only a commitment to menstrual health and hygiene but also a broader commitment to dismantling gender-based barriers and fostering a more equitable and inclusive society.

On 7th April 2021, in collaboration with the Aashraya Welfare Society, the donated clothes were distributed to those most in need.
Outcome:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The "Old Clothes Donation Drive" embarked on a noble mission to ensure that every individual, regardless of their circumstances, has access to one of life's basic necessities: clothing. Recognizing the profound impact that clothing can have on a person's dignity and well-being, participants in this initiative dedicated themselves to alleviating the hardships faced by the underprivileged and marginalized members of society. At its core, the drive represented more than just a collection of old clothes; it symbolized a collective commitment to empathy, compassion, and solidarity. By donating their gently used clothing items, participants extended a hand of support to those in need, demonstrating a profound understanding of the interconnectedness of humanity and the importance of lending assistance to one another in times of hardship. The drive's significance extended beyond the material goods collected; it fostered a sense of community and shared responsibility among participants. Through their collective efforts, individuals from all walks of life came together to make a positive difference in the lives of others, transcending barriers of class, race, and background. Furthermore, the initiative served as a reminder of the power of small acts of kindness to bring about meaningful change in the world. Each donated garment represented a gesture of goodwill and solidarity, offering hope and comfort to those facing adversity. Through their generosity, participants not only provided clothing but also conveyed a message of dignity and

Activity 11

Title of the Activity	Rang De Jaipur – Jagatpura
Date:	4 th October 2019
Venue:	Jagatpura Railway Station
Organised by	Department of Business administration, AICUF and NSS
Number of beneficiaries:	30 college students
Objectives	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To make a change in the society by increasing its aesthetic value. To foster cleanliness and sense of belongingness towards the nation.
Report:	30 Students Painted the Walls of the Jagatpura Railway Station to increase its aesthetic value for everyone to enjoy. A 30-member team traveled to Jagatpura Railway Station on 4 October 2019. The event was successfully completed with the help of Contree, which is an initiation by the Infinity NGO, who provided us with the necessary kits for painting. This program was aimed at Swachh Bharat to make a change in the society by increasing its aesthetic value.
Outcome:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The transformation of Jagatpura Railway Station through the collaborative effort of 30 students who painted its walls exemplifies the power of community-driven initiatives in enhancing public spaces and fostering a sense of pride and ownership among residents. Through their creativity and dedication, these students not only added vibrant colors and artistic designs to the station but also contributed to its overall aesthetic appeal. The once mundane walls now serve as canvases showcasing the talent and creativity of local youth, inviting passengers and passersby to pause and appreciate the beauty around them. Beyond the visual impact, the painting initiative aligns with the objectives of the Swachh Bharat mission, which aims to promote cleanliness and hygiene across India. By beautifying the railway station, the students actively participated in creating a cleaner and more visually pleasing environment for everyone to enjoy. Their efforts not only contribute to the physical cleanliness of the space but also instill a sense of civic responsibility and pride in maintaining public infrastructure. Moreover, the initiative serves as a catalyst for community engagement and collaboration. By working together towards a common goal, the students forged bonds and strengthened connections with one another and with their local community. The project not only provided a platform for creative expression but also fostered a sense of belonging and ownership among participants, who can now take pride in their contributions to the station's transformation.

Activity 12

Title of the Activity	Pre- INKA event a visit to blind school
Date:	14 th Nov 2018
Venue:	Rajasthan Netraheen Kalyan Sangh Jaipur
Organised by	Department of English
Number of beneficiaries:	15 college students
Objectives	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To sensitize students towards especially abled children and foster a sense of responsibility to make a difference.
Report:	On 14 th Nov 2018, the Department of English organized a visit to a blind school as a pre-INKA event, benefiting 15 students. The outcome was a profound sense of satisfaction and a heightened responsibility among participants to contribute positively to society, particularly towards the well-being of differently-abled individuals.
Outcome:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The visit to a blind school served as a poignant prelude to the INKA event, leaving a lasting impact on the 15 students who participated. More than just a charitable endeavor, the visit instilled in the participants a profound sense of satisfaction and heightened responsibility towards contributing positively to society, particularly towards the well-being of differently-abled individuals. As the students interacted with the visually impaired students during the visit, they were deeply moved by their resilience, determination, and unwavering spirit. Witnessing first-hand the challenges faced by the differently-abled individuals, yet observing their zest for life and thirst for knowledge, left an indelible mark on the visiting students. The experience evoked a range of emotions among the participants - from empathy and admiration to humility and gratitude. Many found themselves reflecting on their own privileges and opportunities, recognizing the importance of using their abilities to make a meaningful difference in the lives of others. Moreover, the visit fostered a sense of solidarity and connection between the students of the Department of English and the students of the blind school. Through shared experiences and mutual understanding, barriers were broken down, and lasting friendships were forged. In the aftermath of the visit, the participating students were filled with a renewed sense of purpose and a heightened awareness of their role in society. They felt a deep-seated responsibility to give back to the community and support those in need, particularly the differently-abled individuals who may face additional challenges.
