FEEDBACK REPORT: AUTHOR'S SESSION

The Author's Session at INKA'20 featuring Mr. Julian Peters was a resounding success, bridging the realms of art and literature. Students from St. Xavier's College, Jaipur, were highly engaged, delving into discussions on poetic interpretation through comics. Mr. Peters' vivid illustrations of classic poetry captivated the audience, enriching their understanding of visual storytelling. Despite logistical challenges of coordinating across time zones, the session was seamless and enriching, leaving students highly satisfied with the insightful and creative dialogue.

REPORT: AUTHOR'S SESSION

Art and literature are beyond language, they are about the interpretations and lessons. The Author's Session at INKA'20 was to embrace the same, literature through the lens of a comic artist and his interpretations. The event was organized online, welcoming Mr Julian Peters, a comic book artist and illustrator from Montreal, Canada in conversation with Charu Datta, an alumnae of department of English, St Xavier's College, Jaipur.

Throughout the session, the guest speaker, Mr Peters, presented his visual journey in the poetry of TS Eliot, William Wordsworth, WB Yeats, and John Keats, from his book "Poems to see by – A Comic Artist Interprets Great Poetry". Students interested in literature and comic art enthusiastically asked several questions about his experiences, career options as an illustrator and artist, the presentation of art, etc.

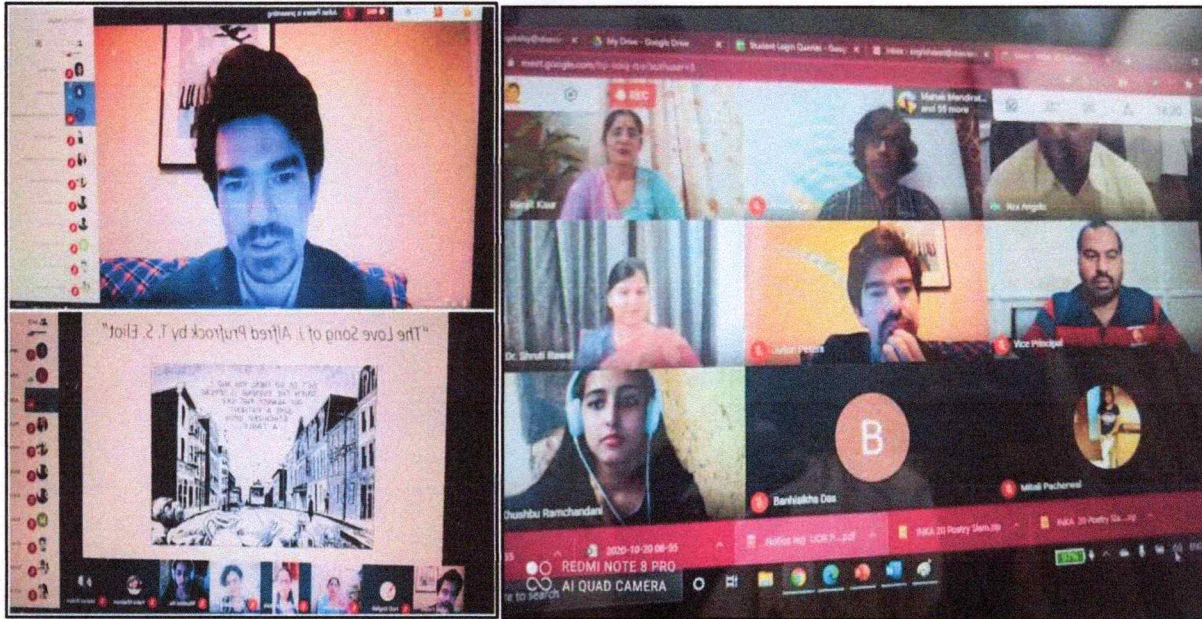

Despite the time differences brought about by separate time zones, the organisers arranged this fun and exclusive session for all the participants and audience. Thus, the event ended with a formal vote of thanks by the teacher organisers and the college management.

REPORT: BOOK REVIEW COMPETITION- BOOKMARKED: LET THE WORDS SINK IN

The Department of Political Science, St Xavier's College, Jaipur organised its first ever Book Review Competition on "Bookmarked- Let the Words Sink in" on 6th January, 2021. The competition not just adhered to the technicalities of reviewing a book but also urged the participants to share their thoughts and feelings pertaining to a work of their choice which came under the following genres: Non – Fiction, Poetry, Academic, Autobiographies and Biographies. The esteemed judge for the event was Rev Fr Dr Raymond Cherubin who assessed the zealous participants depicting their views and thoughts on a book of their choice.

It was an effort to indulge the participants in a discussion upon various works that are intellectually enthralling and highly thought-provoking which is a win-win situation for everybody. The competition was commenced with the knowledge provoking and encouraging remarks of Principal Rev Fr Dr A Rex Angelo who urged the youth to go deeper and deeper in book-reading which is the real method of personality development for every generation.

It was followed by creative and academic competition in which participants from different colleges and departments contributed with their best presentations. It was such a creatively taken activity of book review that made it really hard to find out the best presenter.

At the end, Vice Principal Rev Fr Dr Raymond Cherubin appreciated the active and artistic participation of the students. It was an amalgamation of Politics, Economics, Literature, Psychology and Sociology thus crossing over the multifarious dimensions that held thought-provoking insights for the listeners.

The participants shared their screens with a PDF or Word Document that contained a brief summary of the title whereas some of them decided to present it traditionally by speaking directly to the audience. All in all, the event transcended online boundaries and felt more like a heartfelt discussion on books, ideas and opinions.

REPORT: EXPERT LECTURE ON “THE USE OF NON-SEXIST LANGUAGE AT WORK PLACE”

Language is the first important tool of communication. To build proper communication one needs to make sure that the language and use of words is not flawed. Sexism has been ruling the minds and tongues of people and they often tend to forget when to say what and why is that necessary. To spread awareness about the same and inculcate this knowledge of right words in students the Women's cell collaborated with the department of English, to organize a guest lecture on “The Use of Non-Sexist Language at the Workplace”. Tuheena Raj, epigram blogger, writer and Tedx speaker delivered a lecture over the same. The event started with a formal welcome to Ms. Tuheena and an address by Dr Atiqa Kelsey, Head of the department, to the students and then Ms Tuheena delivered the lecture.

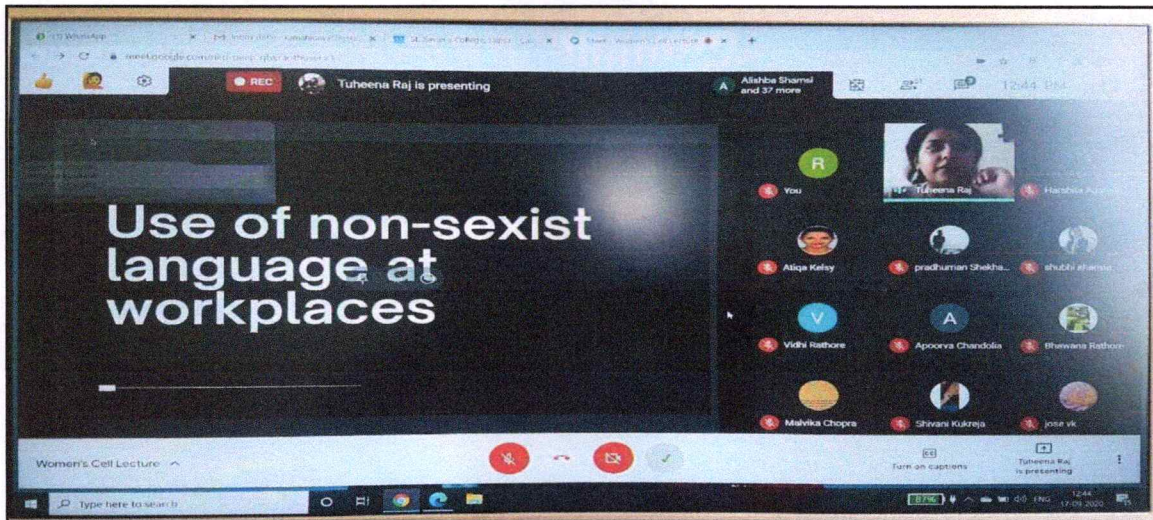

She talked about the use of proper pronouns, importance of respecting others, their physical and intellectual being and many other things that we fail to notice and learn. It was an important session to give a break to the happenings around and make a change.

The session was followed by questions and views put by students and teachers about how patriarchy, its symbols and supporters take over our ability to judge and the need to stop it in the easiest and polite manner possible without hurting the sentiments of others we address to. The event ended with a vote of thanks to the organizers and the speaker and received a wonderful, positive feedback from the attendees.
