REPORT: BOOK LAUNCH IN COLLABORATION WITH THE GREAT INDIAN BOOK TOUR

The Department of English, in collaboration with The Great Indian Book Tour organised a book launch, on 17 September 2022, at 11:30 AM in the College Conference Room. The book titled, Lost Chirp of the Morning Sparrow, by Roshan Raj Mehta, is the second book from The Flyborn Series, a trilogy based on a fictional world named RsamRock Islands that revolves around the journey of a butterfly. The book was launched by the Dignitaries present, Rev Fr Dr Raymond Cherubin SJ, Vice-Principal, St. Xavier's College, Jaipur, Dr Atiqa Kelsy, Dean – Arts and Humanities, Dr Rama Hirawat, Head – Department of English, the author himself, Mr Shubham Tiwari, Mr Prashant Gupta and members of the Department. The book launch was followed by a tete-a-tete with Mr Shubham Tiwari, a writer, film critic and independent literary consultant. Tiwari took the audience on a journey into the writer's mind by asking pertinent question about the story line, the inspiration behind the trilogy, why a trilogy, the idea behind the intriguing title, and similar questions. The conversation sparked greater interest in the audience and invited more questions from them about the book thereby making the session more interactive and livelier. The session was enlightening and inspired many budding authors to follow in the footsteps of the author.

FEEDBACK REPORT: CERTIFICATE COURSE ON GREEK MYTHOLOGY

The Certificate Course on Greek Mythology, offered by the institution, has garnered enthusiastic feedback from students. Many highlighted the course's comprehensive curriculum, which not only covered well-known myths and deities but also delved into lesser-known stories and the historical context of ancient Greece. The multimedia approach to teaching, incorporating texts, art, and virtual tours, was particularly appreciated for bringing the rich tapestry of Greek mythology to life. Students praised the instructors for their passion and depth of knowledge, making complex themes accessible and engaging. The course also fostered lively discussions and critical thinking about the influence of these myths on modern culture and literature. Overall, participants found the course to be a fascinating and enriching experience, sparking a deeper interest in classical studies and appreciation for the enduring legacy of Greek mythology.

REPORT: CERTIFICATE COURSE ON GREEK MYTHOLOGY

The Certificate Course on Greek Mythology, recently offered by our institution, has received overwhelmingly positive feedback from its participants. Students have praised the course's extensive curriculum, which skill-fully navigated through the famous legends of Greek gods and heroes, while also uncovering lesser-known myths and providing a rich historical backdrop of ancient Greece. The educational experience was notably enhanced by a diverse multimedia approach that integrated classic texts, artistic representations, and immersive virtual tours, effectively bringing the ancient stories to vivid life.

Instructors of the course have been commended for their infectious enthusiasm and profound knowledge of the subject. Their expert delivery transformed complex mythological themes into accessible and engaging learning segments. This approach not only educated but also ignited spirited classroom discussions among students, encouraging them to explore the profound impact of these ancient myths on contemporary culture and literature.

The course succeeded in fostering a dynamic learning environment where students could engage in analytical thinking and debate, enhancing their understanding and appreciation of Greek mythology. Many participants reported that the course had deepened their interest in classical studies and provided them with a greater appreciation for the historical and cultural significance of these enduring legends. Overall, the Greek Mythology course proved to be both intellectually stimulating and highly enjoyable, making it a valuable addition to the institution's offerings.
