St. Xavier's College Jaipur is dedicated to promoting inclusivity and creating a barrier free campus. To ensure an environment that is accessible to people with disabilities, values that support this must be included. The biggest barrier to inclusion is the human mind. Hence, St. Xavier's College Jaipur promotes activities that aims to overcome these barriers and dispel all myths associated with the people with disabilities.

EVENT 3

Ms. Laxmi Agarwal- Acid Attack Survivor

PROFILE

Laxmi Agarwal is a prominent Indian campaigner known for her relentless advocacy against acid attacks and her role as a television host. In 2005, Laxmi Agarwal endured a horrific acid attack that left her with severe injuries and scars, altering the course of her life forever. Despite the immense physical and emotional pain she endured, Agarwal refused to be defined by the cruelty inflicted upon her. Instead, she emerged as a beacon of strength and resilience, determined to turn her personal tragedy into a catalyst for change.

Agarwal became a vocal advocate for the rights of acid attack survivors, raising awareness about the heinous crime and tirelessly campaigning for stricter laws and greater support for victims. Through her courageous efforts, she brought attention to the plight of survivors and challenged societal perceptions surrounding beauty and gender-based violence.

In addition to her advocacy work, Agarwal is the director of the Chhanv Foundation, a non-governmental organization dedicated to providing support and rehabilitation services to survivors of acid attacks. Through the foundation, she has helped countless individuals rebuild their lives and regain their confidence after enduring unimaginable trauma.

Beyond her activism, Agarwal is also known for her work as a television host, using her platform to amplify the voices of survivors and continue her mission of spreading awareness and inspiring change.

EVENT 4 Ms. Priya Bhargava

PROFILE

Priya Bhargava's life took an unexpected turn when a health condition at the age of 19 left her bound to a wheelchair, drastically altering the trajectory of her life. Prior to this, she had led a life filled with the joys of walking, running, and dancing, embracing the freedom of movement that many take for granted. In a remarkable display of courage and grace, Bhargava shattered stereotypes and challenged societal perceptions by participating in the Miss Wheelchair India 2015 beauty pageant held in Bangalore. In addition to her achievements in the world of beauty pageants, Priya Bhargava also serves as the brand ambassador of FOGSI (Federation of Obstetric and Gynecological Societies of India), further demonstrating her commitment to making a positive impact on society.

EVENT 5

Mr. Devendra Raj Mehta

PROFILE

Devendra Raj Mehta's life took a dramatic turn when he faced the looming threat of amputation following a serious road accident. However, this adversity didn't deter him; instead, it became the catalyst for his remarkable journey. Mehta, the former chief of SEBI (Securities and Exchange Board of India), emerged as a beacon of hope for millions through his pioneering work in making prosthetic limbs accessible to those in need.

Mehta's contributions extended beyond mere philanthropy; they represented a profound commitment to empowering people with disabilities to lead fulfilling lives. His advocacy and initiatives not only provided physical support but also instilled a sense of dignity and independence among recipients.

Through his leadership and vision, Mehta revolutionized the landscape of prosthetic care in India, ensuring that no one would have to face the daunting prospect of amputation without hope. His legacy continues to inspire and his impact resonates far beyond the confines of his own experiences, serving as a testament to the transformative power of resilience and compassion.
