ACTION TAKEN REPORT 2022-23

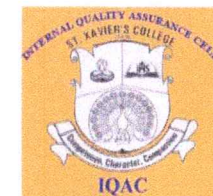

The feedback for curriculum, teacher learning, graduate attributes, academic performance, and ambience was taken for the session 2022-23. The feedback on curriculum and skill development for the session 2022-23 shows that the students have a keen interest to have an updated curriculum with a practical approach to acquire applied knowledge of the concepts and industry-ready Add-on courses. Being an affiliated college, our institution is bound to follow the syllabus prescribed by the university, but all the suggestions were discussed by the Academic Council and were forwarded to the Registrar, University of Rajasthan. To make the students skilled and equipped with industry practices numerous Certificate/Value added courses, Bridge courses, online MOOCs, SWAYAM, NPTEL courses, and workshops covering diversified subjects were organized. The following table illustrates the action taken by the institution during the academic year 2022-23 in consonance with the feedback suggestions. The recommendations of the feedback were majorly incorporated to make the institution student-friendly and technologically updated. The following table lists the issues reported in the feedback and their action taken summary.
