I. “Conquizical-Evoking Consumer Insights” an online Consumer Awareness Quiz

Competition:- To bring awareness and realization among students about their duties and responsibilities as Citizens of India and to impart knowledge about laws enacted for protection and welfare of consumers, an online consumer awareness quiz competition “Conquizical- Evoking Consumer Insights” was organized by Xavier’s Consumer Club (XCC) on 9th October 2021. This awareness quiz was designed to impart knowledge about laws enacted for protection and welfare of consumers. Such recreational activities help with concentration, identify gaps in knowledge, build confidence and help students retain information. The quiz was scheduled on a virtual platform. Piyanshi Chugh of class BCOM I B, emerged as the winner. The second position was bagged by Aryan Singhvi of Class BBA I A and the third position was bagged by Lakshya Lakhotia of Class BCom II A. E-certificates were distributed to all the participants.

II. Webinar on the Topic “Consumer Rights & Recent Developments” - The ideal notion of Customer is the King is facing the major threat in today's era. Companies are ready to cross all the ethical boundaries to maintain their profits. Consumer are being exploited and cheated. It is here that law plays a very important role in restoring the faith of consumers and the sellers. To impart knowledge about consumer rights and current developments in view of National Consumer Day on 24th December, 2021, an expert session was organized by Xavier’s Consumer Club in association with Department of Commerce, on the topic “Consumer Rights & Recent Developments”. The students from all the departments have participated and joined the session through virtual platform. The session was taken by our guest speaker, Dr. Anju Gahlot, Former Principal, Department of Law, University of Rajasthan & Member of International Lawyers Association, London who emphasized on the need of inculcating the skills among students to handle consumer issues. She has been delivering talks on various legal topics in seminars and law colleges about human rights, Rights of women and men at work, Gender Sensitive Education and various other current legal issues along with the most prominent issue of consumer awareness and protection. She talked about various consumer rights and the ways in which one can seek redressal if required. She also threw light on the recent developments in this direction. The students learned about rights & obligation of being a Consumer.

Over all, the Consumer Club has received an overwhelming response by the students of all the departments during both the events and is now looking forward to such enthusiasm in the upcoming years.

2. The sports committee and the yoga club collaborated to organise an online orientation for first-year students. The event took place on 13th September 2021. Sakshi Singh, the sports secretary of St. Xavier's College in Jaipur, and Dr. Ajay Dandotiya welcomed the first-year students to the session. Dr. Ajay Dandotiya presented a quick overview of the yoga club. Ms. Sunita Highlighted the upcoming activities of yoga club. A total of 100 people attended this session. At the end of the session, Ms. Sunita and Dr. Ajay answered the student's queries.
3. Two days online yoga workshop was organized by yoga club for students to learn about the yogic lifestyle on 23rd and 24th November 2021. Dr. Anurodh Singh Sisodiya, Director-in-Charge of UGC-HRDC, LNIPE Gwalior, he has 23 years of experience in teaching, research, and administration at the university level, while Dr. RS Bhadhauria, Professor, Yoga Center Distance Education Jiwaji University Gwalior, were the guest speakers of the workshop on day one and day two respectively.

The first session began with the blessings and welcoming of the speaker by Rev Fr Dr A Rex Angelo, Principal St. Xavier's College Jaipur. Following the welcome, the session was handed over to Dr. Anirudh Singh Sisodiya. In this session, he emphasised on stress management through a yogic lifestyle. In which he taught the students the importance of a well-planned day that included proper eating, exercise, sleeping, and working. Dr. RS Badhauria addressed the importance of Yoga for Health and Happiness on Day 2 of the programme. He connected yoga to mythological writings and educated the audience that yoga is not a new concept, but rather an old one that was practiced in the past. The sessions were organized for the students and faculty members to educate them about yoga and how we can incorporate yoga in our regular life.

4. The 8th International Yoga Day celebration was organized by the yoga club of St. Xavier's College on 21st June 2022. A replica of the annual literary fest, a mini fest was created for the students of the Government Upper Primary School, Layla ka Vaas, Nevta, (the village adopted by St Xavier’s College - Jaipur under the UBA Scheme). To create an ambiance alike INKA, the school was decorated and multiple competitions were conducted for the students of class 3-8. The event began with a musical performance by the students of the department, followed by the poetry, story-telling and slogan writing competitions, which were explained to the children in a prior visit. A special session on origami was also taken to encourage their participation. These were followed by a dance party. An enthusiastic response was received from the sponsors of the event - Messy Door and Krishna Bakery. The team then distributed food packets and celebrated the Christmas eve with the kids making it as special for the kids as for themselves. With an enthusiastic participation from the students in the competition, the event was a success with many memories to cherish.

3. Inka '22 – Colours of the Quill: Coordinator – Dr Shruti Rawal

The Literati Cell and the Department of English, St Xavier's College – Jaipur, organised the annual literary fest, Inka '22 – 'Colours of the Quill' virtually on 6 and 7 January 2022. The inaugural ceremony on 6th January saw the fest commence formally in which Rev Fr Dr Arokya Swamy, Rector and Manager, encouraged the students, and Rev Fr Dr A Rex Angelo, Principal, blessed the students and shared his ideas on the theme. The first event, author interaction, was with Mr. Mohit Narbada Joshi, in conversation about his book 'Semi Colon'. This was followed by the poetry session, 'Inks Iridescent', where several performers recited their poems. The day ended with an informal chat session, 'Coffee Table Talks'. On 7th January, the debate competition, 'In Pursuit of Dispute' was held, on the topic "Art is for art's sake". Next, the mono-act event 'Danse Theatrics' took place, wherein participants' submitted videos were played. Two more events with prior submissions were held – 'Penicillo Inspirante' (creative writing), and 'Chroma Mea' (painting rendition). Several universities from throughout India participated in the fest, such as Manipal University, NIMS University and Doon University, among others. In the closing ceremony, the results of all the events were announced and the fest was concluded with great success.

4. Share the Warmth: Blanket Distribution Drive: Coordinator –Dr Rama Hirawat

On 14th November 2021, in the spirit of Children’s Day, St Xavier’s College - Jaipur, in collaboration with All About Happiness Foundation (ABH), held a blanket distribution drive in the city. The event was initiated in collaboration with The Enlightened Echelon, Department of English, St Xavier’s College – Jaipur. The essence of the event was to spread “the joy of giving”, to lend a helping hand to the poor, needy souls who have to bear the brunt of the chilly Jaipur winter. The motto of the event was “ठंड से बचाएं गे, कुछ अच्छा करके दिखाएं गे!”. People were asked to donate their old blankets or pay a minimum sum of ₹100 to help provide blankets to the needy. Around 70 volunteers participated in this event, with nearly 15 of them being students of St Xavier’s College, Jaipur. The volunteers handled every stage of the event; from promoting it through the means of social media and by pasting “Share the Warmth” posters in various areas, to collecting funds and blankets, and lastly, distributing the blankets.

They covered 15 different locations, notably, Govind Dev Ji Temple, Jaipur Junction-Railway Station, Sindhi Camp, Hassanpura, among many others on 14th November. After the blanket distribution on 14 November with the Head, Dr Atiqa Kelsy and a volunteers shared their experience with each other. It turned out to be a huge success, with more than 1,500 blankets being distributed to the needy. The drive then ended on 25th December, 2021 with the same activity, covering more locations with the coordinator of the activity Dr Rama Hirawat and the volunteers distributing more blankets in different locations. Through this drive, the volunteers of the Department of English, St Xavier’s College – Jaipur and ABH, more than 2000 blankets were distributed to the destitute on the roads as the mercury continued to drop.

The on-the-ground nature of the activity also served to sensitise volunteers about the plight of the underprivileged, motivating them to further work towards their betterment. The college looks forward to initiating more drives such as these to provide volunteers the opportunity to tangibly work towards the betterment of society.

5. FEED -O-METER: Coordinator – Dr Rama Hirawat

The Department of English collaborated with its social partner All About Happiness in their ongoing programs FEED-O-METER from 1 Feb 2022 and continued till 15 Feb 2022. As the nomenclature suggests, the programs were a means to reach out to the stray animals, by feeding them. A notice was circulated and students were asked to be considerate and contribute to the success of the event by reaching out to as many as possible. They were given a letter of appreciation for their kind gesture towards everyone. Around 50 students participated in the event. The success of any such event lies in the awareness and realization that a student attains in context of his social responsibility and his responsibility as a citizen of this Nation.

6. UBA HOUSEHOLD SURVEY – LALYA KA BAS – Coordinator – Dr Rama Hirawat

Commencing on 15 February 2022, as a part of the Unnat Bharat Abhiyan organised by the Government of India, a 5-day survey was carried out by the students of St. Xavier's College - Jaipur. The survey's goal was to study the field and recognize the various problems prevailing in the village so that appropriate action could be taken to address them. To streamline the survey, different villages were allotted to each department. The Department of English was given Lalya ka Bas along with the Department of Political Science and Pass Course. The students of the two departments made visits to the village on a regular basis to accomplish the herculean task. A group of 10-15 students from each department, accompanied by professors and a local liaison who was a representative of ISREAC/UBA, travelled to the village to collect the necessary data from the residents. The data was collected both digitally and manually. As a result of the tireless efforts of the students, teachers and ISREAC/UBA representative, a total of 234 houses were surveyed, thus accomplishing the challenging task successfully.
