

Golden Bamboo

DESCRIPTION

- Golden Bamboo is a of mutations of common Bamboo (Bambusa vulgaris), and has golden colored stems.
- There are narrow green stripes on the stems. Leaves are narrowly lanceshaped, 10-30 cm long, 1.3-2.5 cm broad, both surfaces hairless
- It is Native to Fujian and Zhejiang in China and cultivated as an ornamental plant for gardens in India.