Unauthorised Tours organised in the name of the College

It has come to the notice of the Management that certain unauthorised or unofficial tours/trips are being organised in the name of St. Xavier's College Jaipur.

The Management wishes to clarify that the College has not organised or approved any educational or leisure tours/trips at present. Any such activity being promoted under the College's name is not recognised or supported by the institution.

If parents permit their wards to participate in any privately organised trip, they are doing so entirely at their own risk and responsibility. The College shall not be held responsible for any arrangements, conduct, or incidents arising from such unauthorised activities.

All students and parents are hereby advised to take note of this and exercise due caution.
