IMPORTANT: Advisory on Unauthorized Internship Offers and Fraudulent Emails

Students are informed that the College has NOT authorised, endorsed, or collaborated with any external organizations offering internships through emails messages (including those claiming association with Launched Global, Skill India, or similar bodies) that demand registration or participation fees.

The College has not shared any student data with such organizations. Any student who registers or makes payments directly and independently does so entirely at their own risk.

The College shall NOT be responsible or liable for any financial loss, fraud, data misuse, misrepresentation, or future consequences arising from such registrations. No academic credit, validation, or grievance support will be provided for these internships.

Students are strictly advised to apply only for internships officially communicated through authorised College channels.
