Advisory on Unauthorized Internship Offers

All students are hereby informed that certain external entities have recently been circulating WhatsApp group links and inviting students to join in the name of St. Xavier's College Jaipur and Xavier University Jaipur, while also requesting payments for purported internship or training opportunities.

In this regard, the college administration wishes to clarify the following:

- The College has not authorized any such company, including Internzvalley or any other external entity, nor has it approved any WhatsApp group or social media platform operating under its name.
- The College does not require students to make any payment for internships or training programs.
- Students are strongly advised not to join any unknown groups or access unverified links without proper authentication.
- Prior to making any payment, students must verify the authenticity of the opportunity with the Training, Internship and Placement Cell (TIPC) of St. Xavier's College Jaipur.

Please Note:

St. Xavier's College Jaipur will not be held responsible for any loss incurred by students who participate in such unauthorized activities or make payments without proper verification.

All students are advised to remain vigilant and rely solely on information officially communicated by the college.
