SXCJ MODEL UNITED NATIONS -2026

This is to inform all students that the Department of Arts is organizing Model United Nations (SXCJ MUN 2026) on 15–16 May 2026 at St. Xavier's College Jaipur. Centered on the theme “Peace in Peril: Diplomacy in Rising Global Tensions,” the conference aims to nurture diplomacy, leadership, negotiation, critical thinking, and global awareness among students through engaging deliberations on contemporary international issues.

SXCJ MUN 2026 will provide a dynamic platform for young minds to explore peacebuilding, conflict resolution, human rights, and global cooperation while fostering responsible global citizenship. The initiative contributes to SDG 4 – Quality Education, SDG 16 – Peace, Justice and Strong Institutions, and SDG 17 – Partnerships for the Goals.

SXCJ MUN 2026 will feature six dynamic committees, each designed to address critical global challenges through focused agendas that encourage diplomacy, policy analysis, and strategic deliberation.

| Committee           | Agenda  |
|---------------------|---|
| UNHRC               | Protection of human rights in internal conflicts, with focus on ethnic violence and displacement  |
| WHO                 | Strengthening healthcare systems in conflict zones, especially the Middle East and Eastern Europe |
| UNGA-DISEC          | Regulation of emerging military technologies, autonomous weapons, and cyber warfare               |
| Lok Sabha           | India's strategic autonomy and diplomatic response to global conflicts                            |
| ICC                 | War crimes accountability in Ukraine and Gaza Strip conflicts                                     |
| International Press | Media, human rights, and global conflict narratives in rising tensions                            |
