Academic Progression after Semester VI

This is to inform all Semester VI students that, as of now, there is no official notification or clear communication from the University of Rajasthan regarding the commencement of the Fourth-Year Honours Programme.

In view of the uncertainty, the College advises students to carefully consider their academic options and make an informed decision regarding their further studies. Even if the University grants approval for the commencement of Semester VII, it is unlikely that the programme will begin before the declaration of Semester VI results.

Students who do not wish to delay their academic progression may, therefore, consider enrolling in a Postgraduate (PG) programme. The PG academic schedule of the University is currently progressing relatively smoothly, and students may explore this option to avoid an unnecessary gap in their higher education.

The College will continue to keep students informed of any official communication received from the University regarding the Fourth-Year Honours Programme.

Students are advised to make their decision after carefully considering their academic objectives and future career plans.
