Mandatory College ID Card in the Campus

This is to inform all students that carrying and properly displaying the College Identity Card (ID Card) will be mandatory with effect from Tuesday, 22 September 2026.

All students are required to wear their College ID Card around their neck at all times while on the College campus. Students are advised to ensure that the ID Card is clearly visible and properly displayed.

Please note that a fine of ₹500/- will be charged if a student is found without the College ID Card or not wearing it around the neck.

All students are requested to strictly adhere to the above instruction and ensure that they carry and properly display their College ID Card while on campus.
