Call for Applications for Student Members – Social Media Committee

The Social Media Committee, St. Xavier's College Jaipur, invites applications from enthusiastic and creative students who are interested in becoming a part of the Student Social Media Team for the Academic Year 2026–27.

The committee works towards strengthening the college's digital presence by documenting and showcasing the academic, cultural, co-curricular, sports, social outreach, student achievements, events, and other significant activities of the college through its official digital and social media platforms.

Students with an interest or skills in the following areas are encouraged to apply:

- Photography, Videography, and video editing
- Creative content writing and designing
- Caption writing
- Social media management
- Reels, short-form videos and digital storytelling

Prior experience is desirable but not mandatory.

Interested students are required to fill in the application form through the link given below:

Application Form: <https://forms.gle/m8JgJkgEDFMwS4HH8>

Important: Students are required to complete and submit the task assigned in the Google Form along with their application. The submitted task will be considered as part of the selection process.

Last Date for Submission: 16 September 2026

For further information, students may contact the Social Media Committee.
