Notice

Advisory Regarding Unauthorized WhatsApp Groups and Unverified Opportunities

All students are hereby informed that instances have come to the notice of the College wherein external individuals/entities are circulating WhatsApp group links, social media links, messages and invitations among students, claiming to be associated with or representing St. Xavier's College Jaipur and/or its academic or student activities.

Students are advised to exercise utmost caution and vigilance while responding to such communications.

In this regard, the College Administration wishes to clarify the following:

- Students are advised not to join any unknown or unauthorized WhatsApp groups, social media groups or online platforms by names of, "Upskilling and Certification Campaign Drive," claiming affiliation with the College without proper verification.
- Students should not share personal information, academic details, documents, photographs, contact details or other sensitive information with unknown individuals or organizations.
- Students should not click on or respond to unverified links, messages, registration forms or invitations received through unofficial channels.
- Any internship, training, placement, event, competition or other opportunity claiming to be associated with the College should be properly verified before participation.
- In case of any doubt regarding the authenticity of a group, communication or opportunity, students should verify the same with the concerned Department/College authority or the Training, Internship and Placement Cell (TIPC), as applicable, before taking any action.

Please Note:

St. Xavier's College Jaipur does not endorse or take responsibility for unauthorized WhatsApp groups, social media platforms, individuals or external entities operating without official approval of the College.

Students are therefore strongly advised to remain vigilant and refrain from joining or engaging with such groups or communications unless their authenticity has been duly verified through official College channels.

The College shall not be responsible for any loss, inconvenience, misuse of information or other consequences arising from students' participation in unauthorized groups or unverified activities.

All students are advised to exercise due diligence and cooperate in maintaining a safe and responsible digital environment within the College community.

STUDENTS ARE ADVISED TO RELY ONLY ON INFORMATION COMMUNICATED THROUGH THE OFFICIAL COMMUNICATION CHANNELS OF ST. XAVIER'S COLLEGE JAIPUR.
